

Dar Dhiafa – Djerba

Dar Dhiafa boutique hotel : Prices and information for your stay in Djerba

Dar Dhiafa, “guest house”, welcomes you in Erriadh, small village in the center of Djerba island, rich in a history dating back several thousand years and which has kept all its authenticity.

Dar Dhiafa – Djerba : Accommodation

Dar Dhiafa is a charming hotel which consists of several traditional houses joined together. Completely restored and refurbished in djerbien style, noble and stripped architecture, blends harmoniously domes, patios and roof terraces.

It consists of 6 suites (3 junior suites + 3 senior suites) and 8 standard rooms (double or triple) conditioned air, with names of the Arabian Nights, furnished and decorated differently (paintings, antiques and furniture restored or from local crafts), open to patios and pool.

The accommodations, with a total capacity of 32 people, are equipped with shower or bathroom, air conditioning, telephone and minibar. A cot is available for young mothers.

Dar Dhiafa – Djerba : Catering

À la carte restaurant with Tunisian and Mediterranean specialties.

Painted walls of Tadelack, ancestral plaster lime paste applied by hand, and subtle lighting is an invitation to travel in front of a table set with art. Each object evokes the tradition: the hammered copper plate, blown glasses ...

Tunisian chef prepares a Mediterranean inspired cuisine where local specialties are interwoven with happiness.

Dar Dhiafa – Djerba : Wellness

The two pools in the center of patios, are equipped for relaxation, with available beds and mattresses. The hotel also boasts a genuine steam room with ravines tiles and faded wooden doors, witness of a past still present that invites the body and mind to relax.

The reading room with international televisions gather around the fireplace. Internet connections are possible thanks to the wifi in the reception lounge.

The visit to Dar Dhiafa is not complete without a stop at the Moorish café to chat or to smoke shisha.

Simply said, to take time to sit back and enjoy watching life as it passes by.

---

Pricing conditions:

Prices may vary depending on seasonal promotions:

Contact us for booking .

---