

Radisson Blu Ulysse Resort & Thalasso – Djerba

A luxury hotel with history on the best beach of Djerba island

Built in 1964, the Radisson Blu Ulysse Luxury hotel was one of the first hotels of Djerba, definitely situated on the most beautiful beach of the island. Favorite hotel of Tunisia first president, Habib Bourguiba, it has a long history of luxury accommodation and catering for prestigious guests. Formerly part of the Mövenpick group, then “Park Inn” hotel, it is now Radisson Blu Ulysse Resort & Thalasso, completely renewed in 2010. This large hotel, located at the edge of a beautiful fine sand beach, surrounded with luxurious gardens and palm trees, evokes the heritage and the style of Djerba island. The Radisson Blu Ulysse resort & thalasso is only 20 minutes away from Djerba-Zarzis international airport, accessible from the main European cities in only 2 hours of flight, and 10 minutes away from Houmt Souk, the island capital. The Great Casino and Djerba Golf club are only five minutes away. A free transportation for the Golf Club departs is provided from the hotel.
